In the past year, City Square Mall has helped community-related interest groups reach out to the public by offering free use of spaces at the mall for events and activities. “We are happy to have City Green and Fountain Square utilised effectively for events and programmes organised by community interest groups. In the spirit of engaging and reaching out to the community at large, City Square Mall will continue to offer complimentary use of these spaces to non-profit organisations,” said a spokesperson from City Square Mall.

City Green, a 49,000 square foot urban park located on Level 1, can host up to 150 people in an alfresco setting. The park was designed and developed by CDL in consultation with the National Parks Board (NParks) and managed by CDL on behalf of NParks. A star attraction of the park is an eco-playground that features equipment constructed from wood certified by the Forest Stewardship Council, a certification system that promotes responsible forest management worldwide.

Fountain Square, located at Basement 1 beside the underground link to Farrer Park MRT station, is a 3,900 square foot sheltered outdoor space which can host up to 500 people for a standing event. Fountain Square is home to Play Fountain, a water-play feature that operates daily with interactive musical fountain shows between 12pm to 2pm and 6pm to 10pm - when events are not held at the premises. An energy efficient fan measuring 7.32 metres in diameter provides a naturally cooled environment for activities held at Fountain Square.
