Chuggington is a British television series for children, based in the town of Chuggington. The series follows the journey of the young railway Trainees Wilson, Brewster and Koko as they travel around Chuggington and learn the value of friendship, teamwork, responsibility, the environment and sustainability. The Trainees' upcoming Christmas adventure promises to get your gears chugging with catchy tunes for a rollicking good time!

From 14 November to 28 December, City Square Mall will be transformed into a Winter Wonderland of lights and snow at City Green. Look out for the Chugger Wilson installation, where there will be dazzling light shows and snow play sessions nightly, as well as the magical Christmas tree beautifully adorned with bells! Soak up the festive spirit and have a go on the rides at the Outdoor Carnival or climb aboard the Choo-Choo City Express for a jolly ride of wonder. You may also head indoors to enjoy the melodious tinkles from the Ministry of Bellz with their special Handbells performances and hum along to the familiar tunes. Shoppers can also enjoy fabulous discounts and gifts while Christmas shopping for their loved ones. There will surely be something for everyone in the family at City Square Mall this Christmas!
