With voting spanning across three months, top honours and accolades would go to the top three within each category. Facing fierce competition from various other products and services, City Square Mall has once again emerged among the top in the Best Suburban Shopping Centre for the second straight year.

Spokesperson for City Square Mall, said: “We are ecstatic with this achievement as it represents the continued support and recognition from our shoppers, and we would like to show our appreciation to our shoppers as well as AsiaOne readers for their support. City Square Mall will continue to improve and innovate to provide everyone with the best shopping experience.”

Known as Singapore’s first Eco-mall, City Square Mall has been diligently raising eco-awareness among shoppers and shop owners, through various initiatives and events held all year round. Integrated with extensive family-friendly features and shops aimed at all generations, City Square Mall has become synonymous among the public as a place for everyone in the family to eat, shop and play.

Moving forward, City Square Mall will strive on for excellence as a shopping mall that caters to every need of the family without compromising its stand on environmental conservation.
